Introduction

With each video there will be a handout which will have the script and definitions for common adjectives used in everyday life. Therefore, not only will you be able to learn some hidden gems around the UK, but also learn some great English expressions and improve your English along the journey to the path of discovery.

There will be one new tour video added every month for you to enjoy and unwind with a cup of English tea.

Script for video

'Welcome to NicheEnglish's UK tour. It's where you can discover history, culture, and hidden gems. I will take you off the beaten path to places that you have never heard of before.'

Definitions from video

Discover	To find out something new.
Hidden gems	A hidden gem is a place that not many people know about, but is amazing and well worth while going to see.
Unwind	To relax.
Off the beaten path	If you go 'off the beaten path' you don't go to all the main tourist attractions that everyone knows about. You go somewhere that's away from the main tourist attractions. It's like a secret place.
Medieval festival	This is an adjective describing something from the middle ages. A time in the past around 500 AD to 1500 AD.
Marvel at something	If you 'marvel at' something, you look at something with amazement.
Classic cars	Cars that are from the past that are known for their quality and charm.
Historic	If you describe something as 'historic', it has a long history and is important to the culture and history of the country.
Explore	To go and find out new things.

Let the journey of discovery begin
